Information - guidelines regarding of training courses

- The entrance / exit and walking routes should be kept as free as possible. Where possible, these have been separated by us. We have a clear statement of all precautions upon arrival in and around the building. In addition, these are regularly clarified, for example where gathering may occur, by means of floor markings.
- The available classrooms (theory space) have been complied with the minimum 1.5 meter guideline in terms of seating. Keep an eye on the walking route in the room.
- The classrooms are ventilated.
- The coffee machines are in a pantry, by floor marking the waiting distance is indicated.
- Verification of the identity document or completion of documents by participants takes place remotely. Participants can place it on a table at the trainer upon arrival (the trainer checks and leaves it). Completed documents are taken by the trainer at the end of the day.
- If applicable, a packed lunch will be offered during the training. This is consumed in the training room.
- Class times are coordinated to avoid crowds in common areas.
- The practical training area will consist of a maximum number of people per practical exercise of 6 participants, the minimum distance from each other being 1.5 meters.
- Trainers have a responsibility in the implementation of these measures to participants, other parties involved and themselves. Therefore, the trainers have the authority to stop the training, or to send participants away, if it appears that health may be endangered.

Measures after the meeting:

- When the meeting has ended, the indicated walking route must be followed to leave the building.
